Dr. Stephen Krashen and Dr. Beniko Mason will give an overview of Story-Listening, a method for Second Language Acquisition based on Krashen & Mason's hypothesis of Optimal Input. They will be joined by experienced Story-Listening instructors who will share experience and research from their classrooms. Tune in the Stories First Foundation's YouTube channel each Friday for live demonstrations, presentations, and Q&A covering a new topic each week: from theory and research evidence, to instruction and assessment. Weekly seminars are free for teachers around the world.
